Workforce and Innovation Working Group Planning Session
Boise Centre East, Room 430

Co-Chairs:

Sen. Maralyn Chase, State Senator, Washington State Legislature
Shawna Argue, Director, Education and Compliance, APEGS

Impacts of innovation & growth of middle market business on our regional workforce. Access to Financing, Workforce and Trade are a few vital components of our regional economy. Our session will explore the nexus of these topics and the impacts they have on the region. We will also highlight middle market firms. As a key pillar of the economy, these firms account for a significant share of job creation and revenue. We will also learn more about the engineering licensing agreement between Idaho and the Canadian provinces and the subsequent increased mobility of engineers to and from Idaho.
